KEVIN MCCARTY
MANAGER AND FOUNDER
CELTIC GLOBAL CONSULTING

Kevin McCarty is one of the nation's foremost experts on insurance and insurance regulation. After serving as Florida's Insurance Commissioner from 2003 to 2016, he brings extensive experience as a national and international leader on insurance markets, insurance regulation, global capital markets, and public policy. His career as an insurance regulator spans more than 27 years. Commissioner McCarty was involved in all aspects of insurance regulation and supervision covering property & casualty, life and health, and all specialty insurers. The areas of oversight included company admissions, financial surveillance, market conduct, and fraud investigations. In addition, Mr. McCarty was deeply involved in public policy discussions on the state, national, and international level including the development of national and international supervisory standards.
