

JOHN KERPER, FSA, MAAA
PARTNER
KERPER & BOWRON

John Kerper's practice focuses on providing actuarial services to companies which insure and/or administer vehicle service contracts and related products, including "GAP" and other F&I products. John is considered an industry expert in the field of F&I products and has written several papers on pricing and the analysis of liabilities of these products. He is also a frequent speaker at seminars on these topics. He has been a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries and a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries since 1987.

