

GARNETTE WHITE

LEAD COUNSEL
TRUSTAGE

---

For over a decade, Garnette White has provided deep subject matter expertise to business partners regarding voluntary protection products including vehicle service contracts, debt cancellation contracts, and credit insurance. Garnette currently serves as Lead Counsel at TruStage navigating the complex regulatory landscape for the company's Lending and Payment Protection product offerings. She has offered trusted advice and counsel serving as an in-house attorney supporting voluntary protection products in both the indirect dealer market and the credit union direct loan market. She has tracked and analyzed numerous regulatory issues affecting these products at both the state and federal levels, including state Attorneys General, CFPB, NCUA, and FTC activities, and advised on practical application. She has served as a strategic thought partner on multiple new product builds and implementation of new sales channels.

Garnette is an Atlanta, GA native, received her Bachelor of Science in Business Management from the Georgia Institute of Technology, and received her J.D. from the Georgia State University College of Law. She is licensed to practice in the state of Georgia.
