

WES TREXLER

DEPUTY DIRECTOR/CHIEF ACTUARY
IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

Wes Trexler serves as Deputy Director and Chief Actuary at the Idaho Department of Insurance – a role he has held since 2019. He oversees the Department's regulatory operations across all lines of insurance, including company solvency, market conduct, and insurance policy. Wes joined the Idaho Department in 2012 as Product Review Bureau Chief, where he led actuarial and compliance review of rate and form filings for property, casualty, life, and health insurers. Before that, he built his actuarial career at Milliman and Assurant Health, working with employers, public entities, and trusts on benefit costs, reinsurance, and federal policy impacts. He holds the ASA and MAAA designations and a B.S. in actuarial science from Brigham Young University.
